

Center for Policy Studies

CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY

Human RightS
Initiative

A movie screening and round-table discussion organized by Center for Policy Studies (CPS) and Human RightS
Initiative (HRSI)

MARCH 27, 5.30 PM, N15 103

Central European University, Budapest, Nador street 15

Synopsis // What if democracy fails citizens by not serving them all equally? What if inequality becomes the norm and the most vulnerable citizens are left behind with no money, no home, no rights, and no country of their own? No Country for the Poor is a documentary film about a community of homeless and middle class activists fighting for social justice, democracy and solidarity in Hungary.

To be followed by a discussion with director Laszlo Bihari.

NO COUNTRY FOR THE POOR

(52 min., 2017)

14th VERZIO
Film Festival

Official SELECTION 2017
Hungarian Panorama